SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS

Applicants should retain a copy of this page for their records.

Additional Testing Required for Certain Positions: Physical/Medical examinations and/or drug and alcohol tests may be required for certain positions. Failure to participate in any required examinations and/or tests will negatively affect your employment eligibility and/or status.

Former State or Local Government Retirees: Section 150 of the Civil Service Law of New York State prohibits retired state or local employees from being rehired by the state or a political subdivision and receives pension benefits while employed. Applicants who are receiving service retirement benefits from New York State, Municipal or Political Subdivision Retirement System must have approval under Section 211 or 212 of the Retirement and Social Security Law to protect their current service benefits.

Post-Employment Restrictions: Post-employment restrictions apply to all State Officers and Employees subject to Public Officers Law Section 73. They apply to part-time and seasonal employees, and apply equally regardless of the duration of employment while with New York State. For the two year period immediately following separation from State service, former State Officers and Employees are prohibited from:

- a. Appearing or practicing, regardless of compensation, before their former agency, and
- b. Receiving compensation on behalf of a client in relation to a matter before their former agency.

State Officers and Employees may also be subject to a “reverse two-year bar” that requires State officers and employees to recuse themselves from matters involving their former private sector employers for two years after entering State service.

The “lifetime bar” prohibits a former State Officer or Employee from providing services, regardless of compensation, and from rendering services for compensation, in relation to any case, proceeding, application or transaction with respect to which the former employee was directly concerned and in which he or she personally participated or which was under his or her active consideration while in State service.
