IN THE MATTER
OF
STEVEN RAHMAN, M.D.

STATEMENT
CHARGES

STEVEN RAHMAN, M.D., the Respondent, was authorized to practice medicine in New York State on or about October 3, 1996, by the issuance of license number 204577 by the New York State Education Department.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

- A. On or about June 11, 2021, the State of Florida Board of Medicine issued a Final Order, adopting a Settlement Agreement between Respondent and the Board of Medicine. The Final Order imposed disciplinary action against Respondent based on his inadequate care and treatment, inappropriate prescribing, and inadequate medical records, of five patients. The prescribing at issue included, among other medications, steroids, growth hormone compounds, anastrozole, and testosterone. Pursuant to the Final Order, Respondent was subject to a reprimand, a $20,000.00 fine, $42,341,47 in costs, and ordered to take a drug prescribing course, a records course, and a continuing medical education course in the topic of risk management. In addition, Respondent was placed on 18-months' probation with a board-approved monitor.
- B. The conduct resulting in the Florida Order would constitute misconduct under the laws of New York State pursuant to the following sections of New York State Law:
- a. New York Education Law § 6530 (3) (practicing the profession with negligence on more than one occasion)
 - b. New York Education Law § 6530 (32) (Failing to maintain a record for each patient which accurately reflects the evaluation and treatment of the patient)

SPECIFICATION OF CHARGE
HAVING HAD DISCIPLINARY ACTION TAKEN

Respondent is charged with committing professional misconduct as defined in N.Y. Educ. Law § 6530(9)(d) by having the Respondent's license to practice medicine revoked, suspended or having other disciplinary action taken, or having the Respondent's application for a license refused, revoked or suspended or having voluntarily or otherwise surrendered the Respondent's license after a disciplinary action was instituted by a duly authorized professional disciplinary agency of another state, where the conduct resulting in the revocation, suspension or other disciplinary action involving the license or refusal, revocation or suspension of an application for a license or the surrender of the license would, if committed in New York state, constitute professional misconduct under the laws of New York state (namely N.Y. Educ. Law §§ 6530[3], [32]) as alleged in the facts of the following:

1. Paragraphs A and B.
