IN THE MATTER
OF ANDREW DOE, M.D.

STATEMENT
CHARGES

ANDREW DOE, M.D., the Respondent, was authorized to practice medicine in New York State on or about January 30, 2007, by the issuance of license number 242976 by the New York State Education Department.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

A. On or about October 15, 2021, the Texas Medical Board (hereinafter, "Texas Board") issued an Agreed Order (hereinafter, "Order"), which issued a public reprimand, directed Respondent to complete an assessment with the Texas A&M Health Science Center Knowledge, Skills, Training, Assessment and Research program, directed Respondent's practice be monitored by a practice monitor for eight consecutive monitoring cycles, directed Respondent to take and pass a Jurisprudence Examination and for Respondent to take eight hours of Category I CME each in the areas medical recordkeeping, ethics, and risk management. This Order was issued pursuant to findings Respondent: failed to meet the applicable standard of care in his pre-operative and post-operative documentation; failed to properly treat a patient's L2 vertebral body with acute edema and hemorrhage; failed to recognize the extravasation of cement during or following the procedure; and in the final operative report, failed to accurately describe the actual procedure performed on the patient.

B. The conduct resulting in the Texas Board's disciplinary action against Respondent would constitute misconduct under the laws of New York State pursuant to the following Section of New York State Law:

1. New York Education Law § 6350(3) (Practicing the profession with negligence on more than one occasion); and/or
2. New York Education Law § 6530(32) (Failing to maintain a record for each patient which accurately reflects the evaluation and treatment of the patient).

SPECIFICATION OF CHARGES
HAVING HAD DISCIPLINARY ACTION TAKEN

Respondent is charged with committing professional misconduct as defined in N.Y. Educ. Law § 6530(9)(d) by having his or her license to practice medicine revoked, suspended or having other disciplinary action taken, or having his or her application for a license refused, revoked or suspended or having voluntarily or otherwise surrendered his or her license after a disciplinary action was instituted by a duly authorized professional disciplinary agency of another state, where the conduct resulting in the revocation, suspension or other disciplinary action involving the license or refusal, revocation or suspension of an application for a license or the surrender of the license would, if committed in New York state, constitute professional misconduct under the laws of New York state (namely N.Y. Educ. Law §§ 6530(3) and (32)) as alleged in the facts of the following:

1. The facts in Paragraphs A, B and B.1 and/or A, B, and B.2.
