THOMAS J. TARTARO, M.D.

CHARGES

THOMAS J. TARTARO, M.D., the Respondent, was authorized to practice medicine in New York State on June 22, 1979, by the issuance of license number 138378 by the New York State Education Department. The Respondent is not currently registered with the New York State Education Department to practice medicine.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

- 1. On or about January 24, 1994, Respondent was convicted in the Imperial County Municipal Court, State of California, after a no contest plea, of one count of sexual battery while the victim is restrained in violation of California Penal Code §243.4(a). Respondent's plea was taken in response to an eight count felony complaint.
- More specifically, in or about February and March, 1993, Respondent, a neurologist, treated Melanie L., a patient, for complaints of migraine headaches. On three separate office visits during that period, Respondent instructed Melanie L. to bend over an examining table, whereupon Respondent intentionally rubbed his erect penis against Melanie L.'s buttocks. On the third of the referenced office visits, Respondent touched Melanie L.'s "vaginal area" with his hand, after removing her pants and underwear.

-1111

- 3. On or about January 24, 1994, Respondent was sentenced by the Superior Court of California, County of Imperial to, among other things, a suspended prison sentence of four years; 90 days of imprisonment in the Imperial County Jail with one day time served credit; five years probation during which period his license to practice medicine is restricted; and payment of $10,000.00 in restitution.
- 4. The act for which the Imperial County Municipal Court, State of California convicted Respondent would, if committed in New York State, have constituted a crime under N.Y. Penal Law §130.55 [sexual abuse in the third degree subjecting another person to sexual contact without that person's consent].

SPECIFICATION

Respondent is charged with professional misconduct under N.Y. Educ. Law §6530(9)(iii) (McKinney Supp. 1994) by reason of his having been convicted of committing an act constituting a crime under the law of another jurisdiction and which, if committed within this State, would have constituted a crime under New York State law in that Petitioner charges:

1. The facts in Paragraphs 1 through 4.
